College Prep Math Parent Guide

Inurit one, students will dassify and study different types of numbers, along with operations of each bird. Additionally, students will gain a baseline understanding of firactions and decimals. They will consent, evaluate, and complete operations for both firactions and decimals.

Students will be able to dassify & perform operations with all types of numbers and will be able to convert and perform operations with first ions and decimals

- Students will create a recessary baseline understanding of relationships and operations of numbers

